“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Gregory S. Stokes. To lose a loved one in death is the most devastating event that can take place in our lives. The pain and anguish we feel never truly goes away. Our Heavenly Father is aware of what we are feeling and is here to offer us comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He holds out wonderful promises concerning our departed ones at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. To know that there is a better future awaiting those we have lost in death, where the issues, such as sickness and death that plague mankind today, will be things of the past. I hope this can give you the strength to endure the difficult days ahead. Again, I am sorry for your loss.

“ Shirley you and Steve have been a part of my life since the two of your beginning. Even before the birth of the girls, and that's a long time of joy. At this time know that God has had his way and Steve was such a great Husband and Father and Friend to many. May God Be with you and your family at this time of need.

Love,

Claudette Freedman.

“ *To the Family & Friends of Mr. Stokes:
May you gain comfort as you keep in mind that God has made a provision to reunite us with our loved ones who fall asleep in death. "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up dead ones when he said:
"I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). We can put complete trust in these promises...God is faithful and His Word is truth! (John 17:17).*
