“ To the Sullivan family, I send my deepest condolences. My thoughts and prayers are forever with you all. Keep your heads lifted up to the hills from where your help cometh from, for we know it comes from the Lord. He will see you all through this. Be strong, stay together and keep the Faith. I was just getting to know cousin Greg more as we shared a particular tv show in common. Lol. I am going to miss swapping thoughts with him on it and seeing what he would have thought of it when it returns. But, I will hold on to those few memories every time I watch it and think of him. You will be missed by your family and friends cousin, but your new home amongst angels awaits you....to be absent from the body and present with the Lord. No more sorrow and no more pain. God bless you all Sullivan family..with my deepest sympathy. Love you all. 🙏💕💕

“ I recall when the Sullivan family moved to Tony Valley area in early 1970s. Mr. & Mrs. SULLIVAN their 3 kids, Greg, Donald, Gail and the youngest daughter Theresa was born later. When the Sullivans moved to the neighborhood there were only a few Black Families living in the immediate area. Although, I was a bit older I was glad to see some boys move into the neighborhood. I recall playing light tackle football in my front yard with the Williams and Sullivan boys. Those were fun times and simpler times growing up. I was very shocked and heart broken when the News of Greg's transition was conveyed to me. As we got older and created our Own families, We didn't see each other that often, but that closeness as friends short of being family stilled remained between the Mathis and Sullivan families. Greg, My friend you will be missed but you won't be Forgotten by Cathy and I. It's just the kids now since the Parents of Both families has gone home to Glory. Peace and Prayers to the immediate Sullivan family and Beyond. Dwayne B Mathis

“ Dear Dad,
Words can not express how I feel, I'm saddened to hear you are no longer with us. Eventhough you are absent from the body I know you are present with the Lord. All the pain and suffering is gone. You are healed now. I'm praying God that you just give my family strength, peace, comfort, and just watch over them at this trying time. 🙏 Love Kevia, Gianna & Vicky
