“ I am so sorry for your loss. My condolences go out to the family. Remember that even Jesus cried when Lazarus died but he soon resurrected him. We have that hope that our loved ones will be resurrected in the near future and that we can enjoy life without having to worry about death.(Rev 21:3,4)

“ To the Brown family,
Your mom, and I highly respected each other. We were never at odds about anything. Welcomed in each other's home. She always showed me so much love. I was always welcomed at the table. Sometimes I'd just show up, with my own carry out dish. I loved her soup, many times she'd hand me the spoon, and say go for your self. I didn't always go empty handed. My Pound Cake was a big hit. Mrs. Brown was a very spiritual lady. She taught me a lot. Not forget she was a busy body, with her flowers, and paint brush. I'd ask her is she painting the wall or herself.
May Mrs. Brown rest in Heavenly Peace.
On behalf of the Powers family . Be Blessed !

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth; giving us evidence of what He will do in the future. Keep in mind that "God sent His only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Continue to "Draw close to God (in prayer) and He will draw close to you." ~ James 4:8
