“ *Dearest Hosch Family,
It was such a pleasure and an honor to care for you and for Trey as you were on the hospice unit. The love that was exemplified by your family was so very inspiring and we pray that the love and comfort of God will keep you in the days, months, and years to come. Our prayers are with you and if you need us at anytime, please don't hesitate to contact us. Blessings and comfort, now and forever,
The staff of Hospice Atlanta and the Emory Healthcare Hospice Unit.*

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Although I did not know your loved one personally, my heart goes out to you during this very difficult time. In times like this I have found comfort in God's promises recorded at Revelation 21:4 & John 5:28,29, where it is promised that sickness & death will be done away with but that our loved one is safe in God's memory and we will be able to be reunited with them again. These promises may seem unrealistic because of what we experience now, but I hope that knowing our loving Heavenly Father longs to do these things (Job 14:14,15) can bring you some comfort until these promises are fulfilled.
*Sincerely,
Monique*

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Mr. Hosch. When loved ones fall asleep in death, we can gain comfort as we keep in mind that God made a loving provision to raise up dead ones when "He sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in this provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5).

“ My deepest condolences to my IAAP sister and friend in the loss of your dearly beloved. There are no words that I can say that will bring you comfort at this time. But God..... He is there for you and feels your pain. HE can bring comfort to you like no one else can. Be strong in the Lord and know that the prayers of the righteous availeth much. God Bless you and your family during this time. Your loved one is resting safe in his arms.

“ A MAN NAMED JOB, LONG AGO ASKED "IF A MAN DIE SHALL HE LIVE AGAIN" JOB 14:14. THE BIBLE MAKES IT CLEAR "YOUR DEAD ONES WILL... THEY WILL RISE UP". WHEN YOU ARE UP TO IT FOR COMFORT AND HOPE PLEASE READ JOHN 5:28,29, ACTS 24:15 AND REV. 21:4. I'M SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS AND MAY GOD BE WITH THE HOSCHE FAMILY AND FRIENDS. L. J. STONE MOUNTAIN, GA.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Guy Hosche. To lose a loved one in death is the most devastating event that can take place in our lives. The pain and anguish we feel never truly goes away. Our Heavenly Father is aware of what we are feeling and is here to offer us comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He holds out wonderful promises concerning our departed loved ones at John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21: 3,4. To know that there is a better future awaiting for those we have lost in death, where the issues, such as sickness and death that plague mankind right now will be things of the past. I hope this can give you the strength to endure the difficult days ahead. Again, I am truly sorry for your loss.
