“ Ms.Alston certainly was blessed with the strength mentioned at Psalms 90:10. Although living a full life, she will surely be missed by loved ones. Jehovah the God of all comfort (Romans 15:4) has commissioned his Son to awaken all those who have fallen asleep (John 5: 28, 29). Please kindly accept my sympathy and may these scriptures bring you much needed comfort.

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural comfort to the family and friends of Ms. Alston.As you look ahead, please keep in mind that God's resurrection provision assures us: Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19). God made this provision when He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25).

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of dear Mrs. Alston. I know you must have had some amazing memories with her, and she will be missed greatly. I have a scripture that can hopefully help you to cope with her loss. It's Rev. 21:3,4 and it states that there will be a time when death will be no more, we will get to see our dead loved ones again. May you find comfort and hope in God's promises.~hc~

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family of Gwendolyn. I pray that Jehovah, the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort mentioned in his word the Bible at Phillipians 4:6,7. Although she lived a long life I know loosing a loved one in death is a tragedy, however we look forward to a joyful time in the near future when Gods Kingdom (mentioned at Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind. Under that Kingdom no resident will say I am sick. (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no death nor tears. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) Meditate on Gods word, and draw close to our Heavenly Father Jehovah in prayer during this difficult time. visit jw.org for more scriptural comfort on dealing with the loss of a loved one.
