“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family. I met Pastor Brown about five years ago through her daughter Robin. She was always so loving and kind. What a beautiful light she was here on Earth, and she will continue to shine in Heaven. I will continue to pray for the family. May God strengthen and comfort you.

“ My family and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your love one. Death is an enemy that God never intended mankind to have to deal with—even the Bible says so. But one thing I take comfort from in hard times such as these is Isaiah 25:8, where God promises to do away with death. In hard times such as these a thought that like can really bring a little light into the darkness. My family has yours in their prayers.

“ Gwen and I were classmates at McAfee, and we graduated together. She was one of the sweetest friends I have ever had . She was a woman of God, and as others have said, a light for this side of eternity. I know that she is shining infinitely more brightly on the Other Side. Shine, and rest, and live in the joy of our Lord, until we meet again, dear one.

“ I met Pastor Gwen about a year ago and the timing was ironic-It was during a time in my spiritual journey that I felt God was calling me toward mission work.. We immediately got along with one another like we knew each other our whole life..

As I continued to spend time with her and the congregation @ The Corner- I knew God had been intentional in our paths crossing..

I have learned so much from Pastor Gwen and she has been a true inspirational mentor to me-if only for a short time. I feel truly Blessed to have been in her presence.. I thank God that he connected our paths..

Pastor Gwen would often say I was a blessing to Cornerstone-when Cornerstone was the blessing to me..

Pastor Gwen always had a smile on her face when she greeted anyone so warm friendly and inviting.. My son is in college and she has always been there for me like a second mother giving advise and encouragement to both of us..

I will cherish the fond memories we have shared and think often of her..

Many Blessings, Peace & Love to her family, Elder Charles, Robin, Candice, The whole Cornerstone Family.

Love always,
Deborah &Jay

“ I was walking across campus late one spring semester and Gwen and another student called to me across campus. They rushed over to me and I thought "What's wrong? Has someone done something to them or something?" Gwen said, "We just want you to know that we have A's in Dr. So-n-So's intro class." We all broke into uncontrollable laughter. They were letting me know that they were doing much better in his class than they had in mine. They were teasing me and knew that I would not mind. It takes a strong, secure, good-natured person to do that and make it fun for everyone. I get tickled all over again every time I think of it. Gwen was sheer joy and delightfulness. That is what I shall miss most about her.

“ Well done, my sister. Well done.
Now go and claim your reward.

It is our turn to run this race with the excellence you modeled and the love you showered on the world.

May we be worthy of your legacy.

“ Thoughts and prayers...I met Gwen at McAfee and we were friends there. We attended some of the same classes. She was full of joy and the light of Jesus. We prayed together on several occasions. Recently, I was praying for her and looked up her church online thinking I would like to attend and reconnect with her... I was so shocked to hear the news of her passing. My condolences to Gwen's family and close friends. May our God of All Comfort enfold you at this time of great loss. Sincerely, Nancy Penton

“ Dear Gwen's Family,

Thank you for sharing Gwen with us. She was a McAfee Mother always checking on her children by giving them sage advice and loving attention. Her genuineness and her elegance will be deeply missed. I pray that her memory will bring joy even though her passing brings pain.

“ Gwen.....My friend, my sister in Christ, and my Minister of the Word I will truly miss our discussions of life, our children, our goals, and dreams. I know that you are in a better place and SMILING from ear to ear. What a Blessing and What Joy you must have. I am sure you are smiling down upon us and saying, "Don't Worry About Me! Cause God Has This! Glory to God, we will truly miss you and have been Blessed to be a part of your life journey!

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer encouragement from the Scriptures. God promises a future when "death will be no more" and "he will make all things new." Keep in mind..."God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." (Revelation 21:3-5, 1 John 4:9). Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." ~James 4:8
