“ To Gwen's family and friends: Gwen was mother figure and big sister rolled into one. She'd help me with my son Anthony after school, picking him up and taking him to her house, feeding him either lunch or dinner. He loved spending time at her house. We worked together for over 20 years, and she was my friend and mentor. She taught me to standup for myself at that VA, she taught us in the office how to cook a gourmet meal on a hot plate with a wok. It was a funny story lol lol . Carla your mom and family means so much to me. Your mom was a beacon of light, fun loving, loved music and dance. I'm thankful Gwen chooses to dance instead of fearing that disease. She was brave all her life to the very end! Gods' speed. Rest now big sis you completed your special God's gift and so job well done. My condolences to you Carla and all your family. Much love Cathy Geiger

“ Family, though we were unable to physically join you, we were thankful to share the tears, pain, & sentiments, experience all of this with you, to laugh & hear the precious & often funny stories & reflections (California days - I was a little girl back then) say our goodbyes- all through the live stream. I learned a lot about my big cousin Gwen today, what an awesome gift she was! Proud of you Carla, moved & touched by it all - especially the baby sister she was to my Uncle all their lives. She made so much impact & will truly be missed. May God’s strength be with you all always! Much love!
