OBITUARY

Gwendolyn M. McDavid "Gwen" was born September 13, 1951, in Memphis Tennessee to the late Arnette Young, Jr. and Ernestine Young.

Gwen was educated in the Shelby County School System and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School, class of 1969. Gwen obtained her Bachelor of Science degree at Tennessee State University.

Gwen accepted Christ at a young age and was a faithful member of Greenforest Community Baptist Church for over 30 years. She served as a Mission Project Leader in the Adult II Fulfillment Hour Class. She enjoyed traveling, especially when she could tag along on her husband's business trips. She especially enjoyed the trips to New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, and Orlando.

She retired December 31, 2018, after many years in the insurance industry, employed as a Worker's Compensation Claims Examiner/Adjuster. After retirement, Gwen displayed her faith by expressing a passion for volunteering at a local church in her community.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her loving husband, Wendell McDavid, one son, Alonzo T. Ward II (Terri) of Acworth GA, one Goddaughter, Leilea Taylor-Trice of Peachtree Corners GA, four sisters: Davena (Reginald) Porter of Memphis TN, Ernestine (Gabe) Lance of Decatur GA, Thelma Battle of Covington GA, Gloria (Jerry) Bolton of Memphis TN and one brother William (Donna) Young of Orlando FL, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and sorrowing friends.

Gwen was preceded in death by one brother: Arnette Young III (Sonny).

Gwen loved the hymns of the church and often said that the hymns helped bring her through some difficult times during college and thereafter.
