“ I just discovered Gwen's passing. We were roommates Freshman year at Morgan State University in Baltimore and in Sophomore year we finally got our parents to allow us to get our first apartment together. She was an English major and I was a Theatre Arts major. She was in her first play at Morgan with me, "Ain't Got No Teeth" by the late Adrienne Britt. Gwen and I were constant companions on campus and we made lots of memories over the years. After graduation when she moved to Georgia after her marriage to Larry, we really lost touch. A few years ago we reconnected for a brief time on line and she filled me in about her family, her acquired family and her walk with The Lord. She sounded so happy. Neither of us had children but thru marriage we both were blessed to have beautiful grandchildren. She had been on my mind recently so I went online to try and find her, in fact my husband and I were coming to Georgia in the coming month and I was excited for the chance to laugh with her again. I never expected to find her obituary instead of her contact info. Ashes to ashes, dust to dust, Life is so short and so precious you take advantage of it. Amazingly so, I also realized that I had fallen gravely ill exactly 1 month to the day after Gwen was called Home. My sympathy and condolences to her families and church. She was once my best friend. May she rest in peace and sing with the Angels. Good bye Gwen, I loved you and our very special time together almost 50 years ago.

Love,

“ I met Gwen many years ago at the hair salon. She was always studying God's Word and was always ready to share a word of encouragement. She was so humble and I looked forward to seeing her each week. We shared a bond as fellow laborers in ministry and I was thrilled to have her bring the word for the Annual Women's Day breakfast at my church two years ago. Truly, another soldier has gone on to be with the Lord. She will be missed, tremendously. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. First Lady, Minister Teresa L. Smith, New Vision of Faith Ministries, Decatur, GA.

“ Dear Phillips Family, I am truly am sorry for you loss. I don't think there is anything that can prepare us for the loss of someone we love, however we can find comfort in God's word . God promise to resurrect those who are asleep in death in the future. He has the power to do so and he also has the desire too. A comforting thought that I found in the bible says, Soon God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Revelation 21:4 I hope it will give the family comfort too. My deepest sympathy

“ I went to school with Gwen and graduated with her in 1969 from Hamden High School. I have thought of her often over the years and wondered what she was doing. I am so sad to hear she has passed. She looks just as I remember her when she is on my mind. Such a very nice person. Smart and friendly. The world has lost a wonderful person. Eydie (Hahn) Cutler

“ I attended Newhall St School, Michael Whalen Jr High and Hamden HS with Gwendolyn. I'll never forget how, as a rail-thin grammar school student, she would ride up to Newhall St School (on the Morse St side), kiss her father, Sylvester, goodbye and hop out of the car. She lived on St Mary's St and I lived with my twin brother, Loren, on Wadsworth St, a few blocks away. She was a sweet, nice, bright kid from a wonderful family. It is with great sadness that I learned of her passing. Anthony Johns - Class of '69

“ Dear Sister in Christ, How you graced our lives here while we all walked the soil of this, our fragile earthly home. Your strength in suffering, your abundance in love, your hope in the darkest of despair, your courage in the face of trials - and most of all, your never-failing love for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ . . . all of these and much more will remain in our hearts, our thoughts, our prayers, our families, our lives now, tomorrow . . . and in all the days to come. Rest well in the arms of our Lord. You have finished the race. . . you have fought the good fight. We love you and will forever. Anna and Bob Herrington
