“ *To the family of Gwen Phillips,
May God comfort your hearts and give you peace in the midst of Gwen's passing. Cast your cares upon Him for He cares for you; I am praying for you all. Pat Murphy, Speech Language Pathologist*

“ *Dear Phillips Family,
I am truly am sorry for you loss. I don't think there is anything that can prepare us for the loss of someone we love, however we can find comfort in God's word . God promise to resurrect those who are asleep in death in the future. He has the power to do so and he also has the desire too. A comforting thought that I found in the bible says, Soon God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away...Revelation 21:4 I hope it will give the family comfort too.
My deepest sympathy*

“ I met Gwen many years ago at the hair salon. She was always studying God’s Word and was always ready to share a word of encouragement. She was so humble and I looked forward to seeing her each week. We shared a bond as fellow laborers in ministry and I was thrilled to have her bring the word for the Annual Women’s Day breakfast at my church two years ago. Truly, another soldier has gone on to be with the Lord. She will be missed, tremendously. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ Gwendolyn (Jay) and I went to Hamden High together and she was also my maid of honor. We just reconnected again after many years. I feel a deep loss.

“ I attended Newhall St School, Michael Whalen Jr High and Hamden HS with Gwendolyn. I'll never forget how, as a rail-thin grammar school student, she would ride up to Newhall St School (on the Morse St side), kiss her father, Sylvester, goodbye and hop out of the car. She lived on St Mary's St and I lived with my twin brother, Loren, on Wadsworth St, a few blocks away. She was a sweet, nice, bright kid from a wonderful family. It is with great sadness that I learned of her passing.

“ I went to school with Gwen and graduated with her in 1969 from Hamden High School. I have thought of her often over the years and wondered what she was doing. I am so sad to hear she has passed. She looks just as I remember her when she is on my mind. Such a very nice person. Smart and friendly. The world has lost a wonderful person.

“ When we lose loved ones in death, we can rely on God's secure resurrection provision to be reunited with them. His Word promises a future when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Isaiah 26:19).

“ Dear Sister in Christ, How you graced our lives here while we all walked the soil of this, our fragile earthly home. Your strength in suffering, your abundance in love, your hope in the darkest of despair, your courage in the face of trials - and most of all, your never-failing love for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ . . . all of these and much more will remain in our hearts, our thoughts, our prayers, our families, our lives now, tomorrow . . . and in all the days to come. Rest well in the arms of our Lord. You have finished the race. . . you have fought the good fight. We love you and will forever.
