

Gwendolyn A. Taylor

December 18, 1943 - January 25, 2021

Minister Gwendolyn A. Taylor was born December 18th 1943 to the late Walter and Alma Price in Oakland, California. She was married to Minister Matthew Taylor for over 31 years. Gwendolyn achieved so much in life being the first black female marketing executive at OTB. She worked as an Allstate agent for 10 years and retired from Hidden Hills Animal Hospital as an office manager.

Gwendolyn was a loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend. She had a heart for people and was willing to help anyone in need. She was a very spiritual woman attending New Vision of Faith Ministries where she was a minister for six years contributing her time, love and beautiful spirit. She had a passion for animals, travel, crocheting, and even taught herself how to play the piano in her later years. Gwendolyn was a dynamic woman and will be remembered as such.

Gwendolyn was preceded in death by her daughter Ta'meka Taylor and her mother and father Walter and Alma Price.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband Matthew Taylor; sons, Linwood Harris, and Jesse Hodges; daughters, Nicole Hodges and Trina Taylor; Twin sister: Jocelyn Brown, sister-in-law Barbara; niece: Gwendolyn Yates, grandchildren Clayton Arnold, Courtney Thomas, Stephon Howard, Bria and Markel Lockhart, Jessica Ward, Moya Hodges, Zykeriah Hodges and great grandchildren: Telrica, Takiya, and Taylor, and Aubree.

Mrs. Gwendolyn A. Taylor passed Monday, January 25, 2021. A Celebration of Life Service for Mrs. Taylor will be held at 1:00PM Monday, February 1, 2021 at Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home. “ Condolences to the entire family, Gwen's light will shine in heaven as bright as it did on earth. We send our Love, and pray that God comforts you all during this difficult time. Gwen was an amazing women who loved the Lord and he has called her home to be in his presence.

Romans 14:8

If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

“ Ms. Gwen, as we called her, hired my son Aredus Aultman, as a kennel assistant at Hidden Hills Animal Hospital. She helped mold him into the conscientious worker he is today. For that we are forever grateful. The Aultman Family- Mona, Aaron and Aredus.
