“ I met Gwen at CFBC in 1989. We worked together with Girl Scouts, she was a Cadette troop leader. She cared for the girls and shared many valuable lessons. She led by example, nothing was too hard or unobtainable.

I always was happy to see her when she visited CFBC. We would talk about our children. She messaged me on Facebook a while ago, she saw my sons on one of her visits to CFBC and was amazed how they had grown over the years. She was a positive person and her caring nature and affirmations will be missed. Praying for peace, comfort and strength for her family.

“ I miss Gwen's smile. It always made me smile too. She knew that I travel a lot and asked me to donate hotel toiletries because she was making care packages for the homeless. I was happy to help. That was Gwen, always caring for others.

My phone has so many daily devotions from her too. I called her sometimes while traveling to thank her. I always admired her for "living life" after retirement. She'd laugh when I told her, "I wanna be like you when I grow up."

I still see her smile.

Many, many prayers to Gwen's family and remember the good times..

God bless you all.

“ Gwen is my sweet dear cousin and whenever a concert in the park was scheduled, she would call me so we could go together or meet up there. We would share our picnic food and relax in the cool breeze listening to great iconic music I'm gonna miss her beautiful spiritual presence. Love you Gwen and family.

“ Just wanted to share a memory of my sweet sister, Gwen, who was always there to help me with decorations, setup, and contributed gifts out of her finances, to the women at Victorious Women For Christ /The Body of Christ Church International USA. She was always there and willing to help any way that she could. Now she is receiving the BIGGEST & the BEST gift of all - being in the presence of Jesus himself, her Lord & Savior. Now she has eternal life & peace. What a gift!

Love you Gwen....until we see each other again, we will keep smiling!

“A few years ago Gwen and I attended a yearly Women's Spiritual Mountain retreat in Toccoa GA. The last two years of the retreat we roomed together and from then on started referring to each other as favorite roomie. I enjoyed those times with Gwen she was such a beautiful person inside and out. A smile that would light up the world and so very funny. She could make you laugh regardless the situation. My sincere condolences to Min. Michele and Gwen's family keeping you all lifted in prayer. Rest in peace Roomie until we meet again.

“Gwen you are in a better place with much rejoicing. Family, just know that God will comfort you. Consider what the bible said in Isaiah 66:13: "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you."

I will lift up the family in prayer.
