“ Mom it has been very difficult losing you to death. I was not ready. I hope that you were pleased by the care I provided, the hard decisions I made on your behalf and the beautiful way in which we honored you as we sent you home to glory. I will never forget our private talks, the apologies between the two of us and the special memories between the two of us as a child and the new ones I did not expect to experience in your last days on this earth. I love you and will honor your legacy of strength and kindness all the days of my life. See you late. Your loving daughter Katrina.

“ Mother, I just want you to know job well done. You not only took care of yourself, but you poured love into so many others. My heart is broken, and there is truly no love like a mother’s love. I’m forever grateful for how hard you worked to make sure we never went without.

This is so hard not hearing your voice, not being able to call you anymore. But I am so thankful that God chose you to be my mama. From you, I learned what it means to be a strong Black woman. You are my hero, the strongest woman I have ever known.

I love you always. Rest in paradise, beautiful. ☐ Love you baby girl Boobie.

“ Mama losing you is the hardest loss of my life! I honestly feel like I’ve lost one of the very few people that genuinely love me, that cared about me and regularly checked in on me. God is present always in my life. I will need him more than ever. I love you so very much. I will always pray for your soul to enter into heaven. I will live a honest hard working life. It’s so hard to go on without you. I am broken inside without my mommy. Love you forever and always.
