“ Grandma, Im sorry I didn't visit more or get to say goodbye. I still loved you with all my heart. I never felt like part of the family but you never turned me away and you always opened your door to me. You loved my baby girl C.C. and she loved to visit you. You always had a story, food on the stove, and a western on TV. You taught me the importance of making your bed first thing in the morning. You always greeted me with "Heeey Shuga, how you do?" And I will never forget you. My heart hurts but I know you are in a better place.

“ Heaven's gates have opened to receive one of the kindest and most loving people born to date. So genuine, so caring, so funny. A confidante, a nurturer, a great cook, and more!

My deepest condolences to all the family. May Mama Jean's legacy of love and kindness toward us all be a source of strength and comfort for us now. I know she would want it no other way.

Mama Jean, you have earned your wings. You always gave more than you took. Though you're gone, you will live forever in our hearts. Thanks for always loving me and making me feel like a daughter. Every goodbye isn't gone.

Until we meet again,

Rachelle Wright and Family

“ to Jean, the mother of Jim, my brother in law and husband of Nicole, my sister.
Years ago I got to know you, at home at McAfee road. It was a warm meeting that I will always remember.
It feels sad that you are not there anymore, as the center of the family. I know they loved you just like you loved them.

with much love,

“ To my Auntie Hannah, Beautiful peace holds you now. I will always smile when reminiscing about the fun times spent at your home, and you allowing Sonja to stay the summer up in Washington DC/Maryland with me at our family NE Washington home with Nana. We shall consider ourselves blessed to have you here to share wisdom. You definitely will be missed, but you're not gone from our hearts, this it's just until again Auntie...
