“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Hester: I'm sorry for your loss and I offer sincere condolences to you all. As you look ahead, please remember that God made a provision to restore dead ones to life when He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. ~1 John 4:9. Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. God is faithful and always fulfills his promises....

“ Dear family of Hester, I am sorry for your loss. The death of someone you love can be a very difficult thing to cope with. But you can find comfort in the Bible at Revelation 21:4 where it states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Please be comforted by these words.

“ Please accept my sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Revelation 21: 3-5 holds out a promise that in the near future the sting of losing loved ones will be a thing of the past. For Jehovah God has comforted mankind through his Son Jesus Christ that he will soon awaken those who have fallen asleep (John 5: 28, 29). What a time that we all look forward to!
