“ Sending love and prayers to my Uncle Harold “Bo” Lambert’s family in Georgia. My heart hurt when I heard of his passing. I was blessed to be able to speak to him for the last time at Aunt Dorothy’s Homegoing. Uncle Bo was known for renaming some of us in the family. He always called me Taira “Ann”, though I have no idea where he got Ann from. 😊 He was the only one who could call me that. We will miss you Uncle Bo. Love You Family

“ I always felt as a little girl and even now as an “older” person, that I had the best uncles in the world. Whether we saw you at a family reunion in West Virginia, Columbus or Philadelphia I was always your “Marcy Blaine”. Never knew why you called me that name or where you got the “Blaine” from, but I will always be your Marcy Blaine, Rest In Peace Uncle Bo ❤️
