“ Virginia, I knew Harold shortly after he came to the Atlanta and I can truly say that he has been a fine example of a faithful servant from youth on. When I think of him I can see that beautiful smile of his and the funny way he can tell a story as well as other fine qualities of his. “ Although we have a wonderful hope, it doesn't stop us from missing our dear brother. We know that he will sleep for a short while and then will be awakened by Jesus call. Brother Meely was a loving servant of Jehovah who showed by the way he lived his life that he truly believed in all of the wonderful promises for the future. May we remain faithful so we can be present to welcome him back.

“ To the Meely family ... you may remember us, you may not, but we remember all of you so well especially Harold. He was truly a loving shepherd, looking after everyone. He would always go out of his way to make us feel right at home each time we visited the Conyers cong. May Jehovah help you to cope with the days ahead and comfort you. We look forward to the time when we will be united with our loved ones under peaceful conditions. Ps 147:3

“ Brother Meely was indeed a true servant and witness of Jehovah God. He was a friend and I was in their wedding at the Kingdom Hall on Eason St in Atlanta many years ago. I am sure he will come forth in the resurrection at the proper hour.

“ I new brother Harold Meely before he met and married Virginia and I was in their wedding. At the Kingdom Hall on Eason St in Atlanta.I truly believe he was a most faithful witness of JEHOVAH God and a true slave of our King and Lord Jesus Christ. I am sure he will be in the resurrection. Not just because he was my friend but because he was a true servant of the most high Jehovah God.

“ Dear Sis. Meely and family:I'm so sadden by the loss of your husband and father and friend. He was truly a special man, blessed by Jehovah. His years of faithful service to Jehovah has affected many, many people, including myself. I know Jehovah will remember him and use him again in the new system where death will be no more. You have had to endure a good bit over the years and Jehovah appreciates you loyalty and faithfulness. At this time of sorrow may you find comfort knowing that you are loved by so many and we all share your loss. Much love, Salina (Hall) Brown

“ Sister Meely, Johnny, and Jennifer: Kathy and Myself were saddened at the loss of Brother Meely. While we were courting he always showed concern for us 22 years ago; as well as for our children. He was always concerned about the congregation and his family and it showed in everything he did. He put the kingdom first as Jesus instructed and I am sure Jehovah treasures him for that. We hope that you are not too saddened by his passing, as he "fought the fine fight, and ran the course to the finish", just as the apostle Paul did. Gary, Kathy, Joshua, Caitlin, and Naomi Saxton.
