“ Very sad news to hear after discovering years later from our days at the Butler Street YMCA. I met Harvey at the Y when I was in Atlanta and 19 years old (1963). We were close friends ... I even spent the weekend at Harvey's parents' home in Omaha, GA. I even remember when he got his first job at Aunt Fannie's Bakery! We lost touch after going into the Army (1965-1967). He was intelligent and quick-witted. I will miss my long lost friend ... he may be gone, but never forgotten!

My brother, Arthur Wheeler, and I extend sincere condolences to the Talley Family.
