“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mrs. Hattie Thedford. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ As I share my loving and heartfelt sympathy to you dear children and our entire family, I am filled with so many wonderful memories of our growing up years in the Pea Ridge community in Rayle , GA especially when we reached high school memories of getting to school catching the bus or eating bowls of grits in Cousin Georges' A-Model Ford when we missed the bus. May these and many more wonderful memories that your mother's loved ones and friends warm your heart and comfort you during your immediate loss and in the days ahead. May you all grow closer, join together in love and support to foster good will as she did in service, giving, friendship, and fellowship. Seek His purpose for your life and purpose. My siblings: Ms. Lucy E. Willis, Washington, GA and The Reverend Dr. Ben Kenneth Willis, Athens, GA join me in expressing their sincere condolences as well.

Cousin,

“ Although i don't know her personally,I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Thedford during this difficult time. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our time of need. Gods word the Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:1-4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when will reunite with our loved ones again (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. “ To the Family and Friends of Mrs. Thedford: May "the God of all comfort" continue to strengthen you all as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). God made this loving provision at great cost to himself when "He sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25). God is faithful...
