“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To the Young Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. When the time is right, please look up the following scriptures in your copy of the Bible... John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. We can have faith in what the Bible says because our God, Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..(Hebrews 6:18.) Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples.. "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." This helps us to know that Miss Hattie is sleeping as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead.

“ Mother Hattie is truly loved by her Church Family at St. John Apostolic Holiness Church in Tucker. She made a difference in my life. I considered her a Mother and a Friend. We would go out to eat and sit and talk for hours about the Lord. Every now and then we would go shopping together. She encouraged me as God began to deal with me about ministry. She was always kind, but to the point. She would tell me the truth about my strengths and my weaknesses. She always talked about my "dodads" that's what she called anything I got that was new to wear. She always said she liked my "dodads". Of course, like others, she called me Precious and Pretty. When she needed something she called me by my last name "Cockerham". Then I knew that she was going to give me an order (smile). Most of all she Loved God, she Loved People, and she Loved Life. We called her teenager because she refused to let her age slow her down! Mother Hattie will always have a place in my heart and just as she showed much Love, she is Loved much!

God Bless,

Eoline Cockerham

“ *Mrs. Hattie, I remember the last Sunday at St. John where we were going through the items in the cafeteria. I found some banana pudding and you told me to find you one and find one for your daughter. You would always tell me to give my mother a great big kiss for you. I did just that. I am going to miss you sooo much that I get a little weary just thinking about it. But GOD has a better plan for you. Rest in the Lord. Love you sooo much.
