“ Our deepest Sincere Condolences to my Sister/Friend Karolyn, and Family at this sad time. Haywood's presence will be missed. He lived a long life as GOD promised. GOD promises three scores and ten, and he had a wonderful loving Praying wife by his side. Karolyn, you really took care of him and loved him to the very end. GOD is pleased, and HE keeps HIS promises. No matter what it looks like. Now, we Pray for you and your families Peace, Comfort, and Strength at this weak time. Spend time with the one who knows you best. We all must keep our hearts open and invite GOD in. HE will wrap HIS loving warm arms around us and rock us. Haywood was quiet around me, but he always said hello when I was on the phone. He said goodbye a day before his transition. We will all see Haywood again, if we Believe in GOD, and Strive to live Righteous in our daily lives. Karolyn, you did all that you could do, Now GOD will do the rest. So you rest my Sister in HIM, stay strong and keep the Faith! In Christian Love to my Sister, Karolyn and Family. The Leach Family
