“ Hazel Carter was a mother to me. She taught me so much. I remember when I made pancakes in front of her for the first time. She went nuts when I pressed them down with the spatula. 😊😊😊 I can still hear saying "Just let em cook Malika. They stay fluffy that way." Since that day I never press my pancakes down💖💖💖. Hazel Carter played a very important aspect of my life. My growth!!! When I think of Mama Hazel, I think wisdom, love, patience and one funny sense of humor. I'm happy my children got to know her and I'm happy to say she was a mother me from 2005 til the day Our Lord and Savior took her to rest. I love you Mama Hazel. Keep us all safe! 🙏🙏🙏🙏
