“ *Think of her still as the same. I say,
she is not dead-- she is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand
she has wandered into an unknown land, and left us dreaming how very fair
its needs must be, since she lingers there.*

*Mild and gentle, as she was brave--,
When the sweetest love of her life she gave*

*Think of her still as the same, I say:
She is not dead-- she is just away.
James Whitcomb Riley's poem: Away*

In this great hour of sorrow you have my prayers and deepest sympathy. God Bless you and keep you close.

“ I extend my sympathies to the family of Heather R. Ferguson. To lose someone in death is an experience we can never truly be prepared for. The loss leaves a void in our lives that can never be filled. I have found at times such as these that the words from our Heavenly Father can be a source of encouragement. He tells us at both Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29 that he intends to resurrect our loved ones. We will be given the opportunity to welcome them back. What a joyous occasion that will be. We will not be welcoming them back to an Earth filled with the problems and issues they faced in the past but as Revelation 21:3, 4 says, " and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a wonderful future for our deceased loved ones to look forward to. I truly hope the words and promises from our Creator, Jehovah, will sustain you and give you the strength you need to get through this difficult period.
