“ Helen, my Torrence Street neighbor, has always held a special place in my memory because that’s my mother’s name. Regrettably, I lost contact with Helen and the White family after moving out of our beloved neighborhood. I was 12 and she was already in high school. Mr. White and my mom’s dad had the same first name too—Robert. It was a blessing to listen to all of the tributes about Helen, to learn that she made such a difference in the lives of so many people, and know that she valued the institution of marriage so deeply much like my own mom and dad—Helen and Jack. May your name be remembered sweet Helen Brock White. Pamela-Faith Jackson
