

Helen P. George

July 25, 1939 - November 13, 2020

On July 25, 1939, the world was blessed with the birth of Helen Marie Perkins. Helen was born in Beaumont, Texas, to the union of T.L. Perkins and Mary Lee Jackson and educated in the public schools of Beaumont. She graduated from Charlton Pollard High School in 1957.

On July 13, 1993, Helen married the love of her life, Mr. Benjamin v. George, Sr. The both of them were active members of Fellowship Baptist Church of Beaumont, pastored by the Rev. Albert Haynes. In 1999, Helen relocated to Georgia. On May 26, 2002, she became a member of the Salem Missionary Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. Dr. Richard B. Haynes.

On November 13, 2020, the Lord called Helen George home to victory. Not only does she join the Lord, but her husband, Benjamin V. George Sr, her Mother Mary Lee Armstead Perkins, her Father, T.L. Perkins Sr., her Sister Ella Mae Perkins-Royal, and her two sons, Reginald Rickett and Cecil George. She leaves to cherish her memory her loving daughter Joi R. George and three grandchildren, Wendell L. Hadnot II, Dionnnella M. George, and Elliott Santana; sister and brothers-in laws: Irma (Robert) Lowery and Robert (Judy) Perkins.
