

Helen Marie Jones

November 25, 1937 - October 12, 2024

Helen M. Jones, born on November 25, 1937, in Brooklyn, New York, to William Harvey Moore and Marie Moore, was the third of ten children. She grew up in Brooklyn, attending PS 67 and later graduating from Clara Barton High School.

Helen met and married Franklin L. Jones, and together they were blessed with five daughters: Nefretiri, Iris, Jenine, Veronica, and Urainia. A dedicated and hardworking woman, Helen spent over twenty years working for New York State, retiring from the New York State Liquor Authority in 2000.

A woman of deep faith, Helen was a devoted member of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, where she served on the Welcome Committee. She found joy in her faith, her family, and her community, always offering a helping hand to those in need. Helen loved traveling, attending church, and spending time with her cherished family and friends.

One of her cherished traditions was gifting pajamas to each family member every Christmas, a gesture of love that everyone looked forward to.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Franklin L. Jones; her parents, William Harvey Moore and Marie Moore; her sisters, Alice Wilson and Arlene DeSaussure; and her brothers, Allan Moore, Robert Moore, and William

Harvey Moore, Jr.

Helen is survived by her daughters: Nefretiri M. Hicks (Dale R. Hicks), Iris D. Jones, Jenine M. Jones, Veronica A. Jones-Mullgrav, and Urainia R. Lane (Lance A. Lane); her sisters Gloria Bethea, Dorothy Moore, and Dolores Cooper (Willie Cooper); thirteen grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren, and a large, loving extended family of nieces, nephews, friends, and fellow church members.

Her kindness, generosity, and unwavering faith will be remembered by all who knew and loved her. She will be deeply missed, but her legacy of love and service will live on in the hearts of those she touched.
