“ To the family of Helen McKennon: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I offer sincere condolences and comfort from God's Word. He assures us of a future when death will be no more and all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). Continue to draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you. ~James 4:8.

“ My sincerest condolences in your time of deep sorrow and loss. In His Word the Bible, our Creator, Jehovah God, promised us something wonderful, that there is indeed hope for seeing loved ones again: John 5:28,29 tells us:...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out... Until such time soon to come, we can take comfort that Jehovah God's promises always come true.
