“Goodbyes are not forever, are not the end; it simply means I'll miss you until we meet again.”

Thank you 🙏 for being there when I needed someone, taking care of my Mom alone wasn't easy!

You were there to make it better. To let me get to church on Sundays, you sat with her, I LOVED you even more for that. ALWAYS making yourself available.

I'll miss her conversations, your laughter and subtle honesty in our conversations. And for making me feel better and 😂 laughing with me when I had to let my boys go!!

Thank you! Thank you!

Love 💕 you, Love 💕 you, Love 💕 you!

“ Our dear adopted big sister, Helen, will be sincerely missed. We will miss her occasional phone calls to check on her adopted families in Phenix, Virginia. Her recipes for baked goodies will be even more cherished during the holiday seasons. Helen's beautiful smile and loving heart will forever be embedded in our memories of her. To Lee and his family along with other extended family members, our prayers and love are sent your way.

“ I knew her as" Grandma Helen" from day one. When Grandma Spiva left this Earth Grandma Helen and Grandma Rose took us all in. She had the Kindest heart, the sweetest soft voice, contagious smile and a gentle soul. She loved Uncle Lee & Aunt Michelle and spoiled the mess out of Chantz and Relle. I remember going to church with Layla when she was a baby; Grandma Helen would see us at church and no matter where she was sitting, she made her way to come sit by me and the baby. She would always say to the folks around her "Y'all see this pretty baby!?" Lol. Yup, she took my baby in too. Grandma Helen loved Pastor Samuels and her Victory family. I know Grandma Helen was greeted at the gates by her buddies Grandma and Grandpa Spiva and they are in Heaven laughing, rejoicing, sharing old stories while roasting peanuts, making Peach Cobbler and "Knee High" cakes. 😊 Georgia family, sorry we can't make it down but we are with you in spirit You all are in our prayers during your time of bereavement. Love you all,
Miriam & Layla Brady
