“ To the Family: I'm sorry that you lost a dear loved one in death and I offer sincere condolences. May "the God of all comfort" grant you peace and hope as you consider his promise to restore our loved ones to life. His Word assures us...."The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8). Keep in mind that God cares for you (John 3:16) and he will sustain you! - Psalm 55:22

“ Our family would like to offer our deepest sympathy for the loss of your precious loved one, Ms. Seymore. Losing someone in death is never easy, but relying on fond memories, family, and friends is a great support. Also our Heavenly Father promises to remember our loved ones and bring them back to us again as John 5:28, 29 mentions. We pray that you continue to be comforted as we all await the time when death will be no more. Revelation 21:3, 4.
