“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our loving Heavenly Father we can find much comfort in his word the Bible. Our Heavenly Father gives us the promise of a resurrection (John 5:28, 29 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering. (Revelation 21:3, 4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus, assures us all eternal life. “ My sincerest condolences to the family of Mr. Henry McCommons. No matter who we are, losing a loved one in death is painful. The pain, grief and feelings of helplessness is unbearable. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4, the Almighty God of all comfort, invites us to look to him for the comfort and strength we need to endure difficult times. May you find peace and solace in Him and your fond memories of Henry. If you would like to learn more about God's wonderful promises, visit jw.org. “ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. From my own personal experiences what brought me comfort was finding out that God is the creator and source of life and therefore he is capable and promises to restore life to those that have passed away. He would never cause you pain by taking your loved ones away (Psalms 36:9, Acts 17:25). God has resurrected humans in the past and yearns to do so in the future. He hates death and views it as the enemy and he will conquer the enemy and undo death by means of the resurrection. (1 Corinthians 15:26, 1 Corinthians 15:56, Job 14:15, Acts 25:15) and Revelation 21:3,4) Because I have lost so many friends and family in death, learning the truth as to why we die and where my dead loved ones are what's in store for them in the future has brought me comfort. Giving me freedom from fear of death and has given me hope that I will be reunited with them. I sincerely hope this note brings you comfort. If you don't have a bible and would like to see God's promises yourself you can read these scriptures online at www.jw.org.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Henry W. McCommons. To lose someone in death no matter how old leaves a void in our lives that can never be filled. I truly hope during this difficult period that the words of our Heavenly Father at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4 will be a source of comfort for you. He promises us that we will see our departed loved ones again. They will be restored to life and we will have the privilege of welcoming them back. What a joyous occasion that will be. I hope his words and the loving support of family and friends will sustain and strengthen you through this difficult time.
