“ May the fruits of the Spirit, Galatians 5, encourage your family and friends Henry, through this time of loss, healing and celebrating of your life. Your fellowship over decades, even after retirement, was a kinship that I enjoyed, and was thankful to stay connected.

“ Words can't express the admiration and love I had for this man. He was certainly a great boss and mentor to me most of my postal career. More importantly than that he was my friend. I remember when tragedy struck my family in the late 90's, who showed up to support me? Henry Smiley did, not as a postal representative, but as a friend. We spent a lot of time together playing golf, laughing, talking and solving all the postal problems. He will certainly be missed. Love you "Big POO"

“ I was sad to hear the passing of Henry my former manager of Post Office Operations. We affectionately called him "Big Poo!" I had so many great times with him as his secretary and his friend. When my dad would come visit, Henry would invite him to the golf course with him and some of the other Postmaster's. He loved to live life to the fullest and loved his family. You will be missed.

“ So sorry and shocked to hear my buddy Henry passed away. I worked for him at the US Postal Service for several years. He used to call me "radar", because he would walk out of his office to ask me something and we both had the same idea!! Henry never forgot to ask about my family, especially my parents! He shared stories about his family as well, and as most of you know, loved to play golf! RIP my friend. You will forever be special to me!

“ I recall working alongside Henry in early 2000 when we were managers with the US Postal Service. He had plenty of wisdom about life and being a professional. I always took time to listen, and LAUGH! He was instrumental in me learning to play the game of golf and I regularly mention him with talking to others about my journey playing the game. He will be missed by all and I know how much family meant to him. As we know he has made the transition from this life on earth, I pray for comfort and peace to his family and the Lord shall keep you.
