

Hilda Lee Hill

November 30, 1934 - July 27, 2025

Hilda Lee Hill was the second born to Rev. Elbert Lee Washington and Gertrude Evans on November 30, 1934 in Greenwood, Mississippi.

Hilda's family relocated to Detroit, Michigan when she was only two years old. She married Andrew Hill (preceded her in death); three children were born from this union, Ronald Hill (preceded her in death), Roslyn Everson (Cedric) and Lorna Reshard.

She attended Detroit Public Schools. After high school, she continued her studies, attending Highland Park Community College and Wayne State University, where she studied to become a Respiratory Therapist and worked in this field for years before retiring.

In younger days, Hilda enjoyed bowling, traveling and taking trips with her family. She loved feeding the ducks at Belle Isle Park. She was always a Detroit, at heart. She was proud of her children and absolutely adored her sisters. She watched every single episode of the tv show, "Columbo" as her sister, Yvonne, could attest to. She also enjoyed reading the bible, listening to music, crocheting, crossword and jigsaw puzzles, and most of all she truly admired gardening; she was a huge lover of plants and flowers.

In recent years, her daughters moved Hilda to Georgia, where they could have her close and care for her regularly. She had come to enjoy Georgia and her Georgia family as well.

Hilda leaves to cherish her memory; her loving daughters, Roslyn Everson (Cedric), and Lorna Reshard; her beautiful sisters, Mary Justice (preceded her in death), Willie Mae King, Yvonne Washington, Donna Jean Washington, Sandra Evans and Claudine Ransom (Kevin); six adoring grandchildren, Eugene Hill (preceded her in death), Andrew Everson, Cedric Everson, Antoine Franklin, Joye Reshard and Jasmine Reshard; fourteen grandchildren and great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, 4347 Flat Shoals Parkway, Decatur, GA 30034.
