“ Holt and I were best of friends for 85 years. We started as next-door neighbor 4 year- olds. His entire family treated me as if I were a full member, and my family and I felt the same about him. His family moved away from Coral Gables for the duration of World War II in which his father served as an Army officer. But after the war they returned to " The Gables," to the great delight of all us Skogstads. Later, he was an usher in my wedding, and during much of our adult lives, we both pursued careers and our friendship, in Atlanta. The depth of my remorse at the news of his departure defies measurement. But I am comforted by the knowledge that he was ready to " move on up," and by his certainty that he would finally meet his Lord and savior face to face. So I know too that our loss is the Savior's gain. And I feel sure he will be in a high and honored post demonstrating the power of friendship, love and faithfulness. So long, beloved brother.
