

Mr. Horace Inniss

August 26, 1957 - August 29, 2024

Horace Clyde Inniss, affectionately known as "The Energizer Bunny," and "Mister Horace". passed away peacefully on August 29, 2024, in Stockbridge GA.

Horace was born on August 26, 1957, in Laventille, Trinidad. He lived a vibrant life in several locations touching many lives with his generosity and diligence in everything he did.

A graduate of Wingate High and Mary Washington College, Horace was well-educated and constantly applied his knowledge to better his community and support his family. Horace proudly served in the Navy for 20 years, dedicating himself to maxillofacial prosthetics, a testament to his meticulous nature and commitment to service. After his military career, he continued his path of service as an auditor, serving 7 years at the Federal Election Commission and 5 years at the FBI, showcasing a wide range of talents and dedication to his country. His work was not just a career but a lifelong commitment to building a better future for his family leaving a legacy of a 13-year Yacht Charter business in Florida. Additionally, He was a charter member of Emmanuel AME in Stafford, VA. where he engaged with the spiritual elements of his life and community service.

Horace was a master of many trades and hobbies. From boxing in his early days to swimming and visiting the turtles in Toco, Trinidad his favorite vacation location, he embraced life with vigor. His love for the outdoors was matched by his skill in everything he undertook, whether it was yard work, baking wheat bread in the oven, or building and removing entire bedroom walls in his home.

His favorite song, "Always and Forever," echoes the profound connections he fostered throughout his life, particularly with his beloved wife of 44 years, Denese Inniss. He was a loving father to his daughters, Alexious and Ashley, and a guiding figure to his sons-in-law, Demetrius and Issa, and grandsons, Tristan, Damani, and Jeremiah. His siblings, Carol, Maurine, Annemarie, Junior, Rudolph, and Hugh also survive him. Horace was preceded in death by his brother Noel, and his parents, Theresa Bernard and Hubert Inniss.

Horace will be remembered for his kindness, integrity, and unwavering commitment to his loved ones. He leaves behind a legacy of love, service, and excellence that will be cherished by all who know him. Horace's life was a testament to his enduring spirit and his profound impact on everyone he met. He will be deeply missed.

“ Horace was a kind and caring colleague. I barely knew him when I first worked with him when he invited my daughter and I to his family's beautiful home for Christmas. He was a great entrepreneur, husband and father. True immigrant inspiration. We miss him. Prayers for his amazing family.
