“ This man has been in my life since I had it. He got to see me grow and change and accomplish so much. He always saw the best in me and believed I would do something great. No matter how he would be feeling, he would always think of others, always asking people how I was doing. May he rest among the angels, where his rightful place was always meant to be

“ He was like an assistant father to me, taught me what the true meaning of the love of God if I didn't know any better I thought God was in everything that he done. I have seen this man work a whole shift going and work on someone's refrigerator, get his car and pick up All the kids for choir rehearsal teach us a song and take us home and I could go on and on, but the best thing he taught me was About the love of Jesus Christ

When Ethel would visit us in Utica,NY she always said he was a hard worker and loved his children, loved his Grandchildren and has proud of them, he was a father to them. He opened his house to my brother Amos.He will be missed but his memory and legacy lives on to soothe your broken heart.*
