“ Uncle Ewan it is with very fond memories that I recall my interactions with you whilst I was a young girl growing up...always loved your visits to Coventry UK. Always cheerful and kind and could cheer you up if you felt down...he always saw things from the bright side of life. It was wonderful to be in your company again in 2017 at daddy's funeral, your brother Herve!...SIEP Uncle say hello to Daddy, your passed over brothers and sisters 🖤🙏🙏

“ Condolences to all the family. Uncle will be well missed by me; my memories of him was that he was a kind and loving uncle. In my childhood school age years when my family lived at Amen Corner, Tooting Broadway, London, uncle had a room in our house (his sister was Evadne, my now deceased mother). Along with a variety of fond memories, including his smiles, I remember uncle would cook a wicked bully beef and rice, with green peas, which he also plated up for me, and I gratefully ate. Though my uncle is resting at peace now, I will never forget his presence in my life.
