

Hugh Sheldon Jackson

December 5, 2017

Hugh Sheldon Jackson wants you to know his work here is done. He decided to hang up his license in Heaven, and from there he will do his work. There was a huge sign-on bonus waiting for him. He decided to have a gathering with family and friends that he has not seen in a long time. He will now visit the mountains, go to the park, take long walks around the pond, hug his pretty ladies, hang with the boys, listen to music, and watch some documentaries while eating. He left detailed instructions for his parents, child and family to celebrate his mission here, which has now been completed. Low adherence to this instruction will not be tolerated. We want to let him know that he did a great job and wish him a safe journey. We will remember his smile, his warmth, his energy, his love not just for family and friends, but also colleagues and strangers along the way - many of whom have become friends over time. He worked very hard all his life up until the very end. He made a big difference in the lives of many. We invite you to join us and celebrate together.

“ Dear Jackson Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

*Thank you so much for sharing. I lost photos of the chapter I shared with him
In high school. And in my mind I just had memory. I am so happy you posted this cause this looks just like the face I saw years ago. He will be missed forever*

“ *To the Family and Friends of Mr. Jackson:
We extend condolences to you all. May the “God of all comfort” grant you a measure of peace now and in the difficult days ahead.
Keep in mind: “God sent His only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him.” ~ 1 John 4:9*
