In Loving Memory of Hugh Ella Robinson

Hugh Ella Robinson, age 89, passed away peacefully on October 15, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. Her life was a radiant testament to grace, resilience, and unwavering devotion to others.

Born in Austin, Texas, Hugh Ella dedicated her life to education and service. She was educated in the Austin city school system and obtained her undergraduate degree from Tennessee State University in history, where she met and later married the love of her life Dr. Samuel Robinson. As an adult she moved to Louisville, Kentucky where she spent many years as an elementary, high school and adult-learning teacher, shaping young minds with patience, wisdom, and care. A lifelong member of Westwood Presbyterian Church in Louisville, she served faithfully as a Sunday school teacher and church officer, nurturing generations in faith and fellowship.

Hugh Ella spent her entire life pouring love into all she met, especially young people. Her most recent role included serving as a tour guide at the Whitney M. Young, Jr. Memorial Home in Simpsonville, Kentucky, where she continued to educate and inspire with her warmth and storytelling.

Hugh Ella and Dr. Samuel relocated to Atlanta Georgia in 2022 to be closer to their daughters and grandchildren, which led to wonderful memories of birthday, anniversary and holiday celebrations. Hugh Ella eventually transferred to the Alpha Alpha Pi Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc and quickly became an inspiration with her unwavering love of everyone she came in contact with.

She is survived by her devoted husband of sixty-six years, Dr. Samuel Robinson; her daughters, Debra Robinson Meadows and Charlotte Robinson Marshall (Doug); her grandchildren, William Meadows, Marcus Meadows, Amari Marshall, Janna Marshall, Shayla Marshall, and Trey Marshall; her brother, Albert Walker; and a host of extended family members who loved her dearly.

Her legacy of love, learning, and faith lives on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.
