Mr. Huston Wyche Jr., affectionally known as “Bopete”, was born to the late Huston Sr. and Willeen Wyche on June 7, 1944, in Hamlet, North Carolina. The family moved to Brooklyn, New York when Huston was just a toddler where he resided until moving to Georgia in 2002. On Monday, September 23, 2024, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ opened his arms and called him home at the ripe age of 80 years old. Huston was the oldest of seven siblings, he was preceded in death by his brothers Robert Wyche, James

Wyche and Freddie Wyche; He leaves to cherish his memory, three sisters; Shirley Wyche, Judy Fleury (Julien), and Mildred Wyche; twenty-six nieces and nephews, Linda Dancy, Lisa Dancy, Teresa Dancy, Robert Dancy, Raheem Dancy, Kenneth Wyche, the late Robert Wyche, Alexander Wyche, Tonya Roseborough, Yolanda Wyche, Mecca Robinson, James Wyche, Barsheen Wyche, Jakee Wyche, the late Omar Wyche, Talekia Wyche, Larry Wyche, Judah Fleury, Julien Fleury, the late Renee Wyche, the late Tina West, Evette Paisley, Tracy Wyche, Steven Wyche, Eric Wyche, Dominique Wyche, and a host of family and friends.

Bopete loved his family; he helped raise three generations of nieces and nephews who loved him unconditionally. He did not play; he would put you in your place at the drop of a dime. He was the most fashionable out of all his siblings with a unique style that would stop and turn every head. Bopete was the most creative person you would ever meet. He would build anything from scratch using everyday home items. He would turn a box, plastic, fabric, straws, anything he could find into functional model homes, cars and planes that would have lights, motors and sound. In his later years, he learned how to drive in Georgia becoming our very own Smokey and the Bandit on the roadways when it came to obeying the laws. He had a very kind and playful heart that will truly be missed. Bopete we will forever keep your memories alive. May your soul rest in peace.
