“ In loving memory of Ida B, a woman whose heart was as big as the family she cherished. Growing up together in Arkansas, we were inseparable, and though the miles between Michigan and Germany eventually separated us, our bond was never broken.

She lived for her children, Adrian and Tiara. It was such a joy to connect with Tiara in Florida and see so much of Ida B shining through her. It was like meeting my cousin all over again.

I miss my cousin dearly, but I take comfort in the knowledge that she is at rest with the Father, watching over her family without the burden of pain. We love you, Ida B...💔💔💔

“ I met Ms. Ida years ago when I visited her home when she was down in spirit and wasn't feeling well. We had a beautiful conversation, and our time together was priceless. She gifted me with a ceramic angel, and from then on would call me her angel from God. I left her home encouraged because she was encouraged and filled with hope and faith. She called me a few months ago with joy in her spirit and updated me on how everyone was doing in her family. She loved her family so much! I know that she is resting in the Lord, and I pray that all will be well with her family, that God will fill the voids in their lives, and that her legacy of love and care will live on in their hearts.

“ Ida and I were one of each others' Besties. She was also a close friend of my husband, Curtis. Ida was often a nearby and long distance caregiver for him. We adored Ida so much. She and I shared our hearts and thoughts concerning our children, grandchildren, and siblings. My daughter, grands, and sibling met Ida and fell in love with her. She and I served as battle buddies. We carried each other as we acknowledged that it was the LORD who actually carried us. Rest in Peace. Rest in Heaven. Rest in the LORD'S Bossom my ever Battle Buddie and Sister. We love you my friend! We will never forget you as we grieve in hope. ❤️
