Obituary of Ida Mae White

May 9, 1938 – September 19, 2017

Ida Mae White was born on May 9, 1938 in Exmore, Virginia to the late Mary Ann Baines and the late Roscoe Bailey. Ida answered the call when Gabriel's trumpet sounded for her on Tuesday, September 19, 2017.

Ida grew up on the Eastern Shore of Virginia where she attended the public schools of North Hampton County. Ida married her husband of 52 years, William Thomas White, Jr. and they made their home in New York.

Ida was passionate about sharing the love of Christ with others. Through her passion, she was a faithful member of Morningstar Missionary Baptist Church in Jamaica Queens, New York where she was consecrated as a Deaconess. She was a devoted member of the Willing Workers ministry, heavily involved in prison ministry, was a member of the choir, assisted her husband with the Baptist Training Union (BTU), and was a devoted missionary visiting the sick of her community.

Ida was a telephone operator for Verizon for many years. She was known for putting her church first and not working on Sunday mornings and she would always look for the opportunity to close her calls with "Have a blessed day!" After a successful career, Ida retired at the age of 53 and enjoyed time serving her church, traveling with her husband, helping with her grandchildren and spending time with family.

In 2005, Ida and William purchased their retirement home in Lithonia, Georgia. Ida enjoyed her neighborhood; she joined the Stonecrest Mall Walkers where she was able to both exercise and spend time with neighbors. They soon became active members of Antioch-Lithonia Missionary Baptist Church.

She developed fulfilling relationships with a group of ladies at church, joined the Mother's Board and enjoyed fun times with the NTO (Never too Old) group.

Ida was preceded in death by her parents Mary and Roscoe, her husband William and her daughter Jessie Mae.

She is survived by her three sons Roscoe A. White of Lithonia, Georgia; Fabian L. White of Baltimore, Maryland; and Selwyn U. White (Delores) of Conyers, Georgia; her brother Linwood Bailey of Dover, Delaware; her sisters-in-law Roberta Carney of Tallahassee, Florida and Dita L. White of Queens, New York. She will be deeply missed by her cousin and close friend Elizabeth Giddens of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Mary Giddens of Exmore, Virginia. She leaves a legacy of love for her grandchildren Roscoe N. White, Jason A. White, Mia A. White, Cheyenne A. White, Chardor I. Green, Nyjla L. White and Brianna M. White and her great-grandson Amir Berrian. She will forever be cherished by her Godchildren Pamela McCullough and Sharon Wilson.
