“ Ms. Belle is definitely going to be missed. She was like my work auntie, always keeping me in check when my account was not in check. She was a genuine soul who you could never tell no. She would always make you laugh or ask to do her a favor. Every time I peeked my head in the credit union to greet her, she mysteriously needed me to get a cup of ice or something from the cafeteria. Every time I traveled to the Virgin Islands I would bring her goodies which she loved and she'll say "I'm not sharing". It's gonna be hard passing the Credit Union and not peeking in at her or not being able to text her. I will miss her dearly and I am glad that we were able to cross paths for so many years. Sending comfort and love to the family. Love, Naeemah

“ To the family of Ms. Imead Belle:
My prayer is that God will grant you peace as you go through these difficult moments. Losing a mother is one of the hardest things in life to process but God does not make mistakes. Ms. Belle is now an angel and you will see her again. She was such a special woman and well loved by everyone at Grady. I will always remember the conversations we had when I went into the Credit Union. I'd often compliment her on the beautiful gold medallion that she wore every day. Ms. Belle will be missed tremendously.

Sincerest sympathy,
Jeannette Swan-Dean, President's Office

“ It’s incredibly difficult to face the reality of you not being here on earth with us anymore (beloved Ma). You treated me like a daughter. Your family came into my life at a time when a teenage girl needed you in a major way. Your home was my sanctuary. You were Ma to me and always poured out so much love. It’s comforting reading the special messages about you. A Queen. A beloved mother. A dear sweet presence. I know Father is pleased and saying well done. Love you forever, Juanita

My mom was my world. My mom was the most loving and generous woman I know. She cared for so many people. She always taught us right from wrong. She loved her family and we loved her. I am going to miss her with everything. You have gained your wings and I know you will continue to do your work in heaven. Rest on my loving mom until I see you again. Forever in my heart. I LOVE YOU ❤️🙏
