“ I am extending my deepest sympathy and condolences to her son, Jamal, sisters, Carolyn and Vera, grand-daughter, nieces, nephews and all of the family of Iris Hunter Johnson, to her extended family, Church family, friends, classmates, co-workers in Atlanta and Fulton County, neighbors and those who knew her growing up in Statham and Winder area of Georgia, including hers and family's local Church members and neighbors there. OH HOW SHE LOVED HER FAMILY, FRIENDS AND EVERYONE AND WAS A QUIET AND BEAUTIFUL WOMAN OF GOD, WHO GREW UP ALSO IN THE ADMONITION OF THE LORD WITH HER FAMILY! My sister, Freeda Weaver Williams, and Iris became classmates, roommates and sisters in Christ when they attended and graduated from the Atlanta School of Business in 1964-1966. They continued as life-long friends throughout their years of life and I believe are back together in heaven with her parents, our parents, her brothers, husband, Sims, and so many loved ones around God's throne. I thank the Lord for their long and beautiful lives! They were blessed with excellent careers with the Government, to see their sons get grown, do well and we're so proud of them and family! I was wonderfully blessed to experience Iris's love, friendship and family gatherings over 50 years and my sister's over 70 years. She also loved our mother, Freeda's son, Roderick Thomas, cousins she knew and they loved her, too. I will cherish so many beautiful memories, Iris's and Freeda's sweet voices, smiles and laughter when we were all together and with family. God is faithful, merciful, kind and more and loves her best! He has given her everlasting life and transformed her into an angel now watching over you, family and we will see her and all of our loved ones again. TO GOD, JESUS CHRIST AND THE HOLY SPIRIT BE ALL OF THE GLORY, HONOR AND THE PRAISE! HE IS WITH YOU AND MAY HE CONTINUE TO LOVE, COMFORT, BLESS, STRENGTHEN AND KEEP YOU ALL IN HIS CARE, NOW AND IN THE DAYS AND YEARS AHEAD IS RODERICK'S AND MY PRAYER. LOVE - Gwendolyn Weaver (Pinky)

“Our deepest feelings can't always find their way from hearts to words.” However, I pray that Jamaal and the family find comfort in this verse from John 14:27... "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you... Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." The Whitehead Family (Charlie & Ann).
