“ My dear friend and prayer partner and prayer warrior, Ms. Irma! G-D blessed me to have you in my life! To get to hear the beautiful things remembered about you was heartwarming and so encouraging! That smile on your face let the world know WHO came to get you! JESUS! The way you said HIS NAME told the story of HOW you LOVE HIM! Until we meet again my friend!

“ Ms. Irma...as you would say Tracie Waysee...I have so many fond memories as your former daughter in law. Even as life had its changes, our friendship remained. The Love of God always kept our common bond. Sleep well beautiful and say hello to my Mom, Dad and other family. We will continue to keep your children and grandchildren lifted in our prayers. Take your crown as you served our Lord to the end!

Miss Irma and I spent many days on the phone, we laughed so much on the phone. She was a woman of prayer and a great encourager! I thank God for the times you would listen and encourage me. We had running jokes that only her and I would know about. My whole family loved Miss Irma, such a joy to be around from the day that I met her. May the Lord Jesus strength the family. He is the Comforter!

“ Irma my friend, my sister, my confidant, my covering, no words can really express how much your earthly presence will be missed. I wasn't expecting this and having a hard time accepting it. The only thing that is getting me by is thinking of you at the throne of our lord worshipping him and still interceding on my behalf. You were a light in this dark world and although you have left this world your light continues to shine. I will always remember that last phone call late Saturday night. I will always remember your last words when we hung up. I will miss you Irma but hold me a spot at the foot of the throne. Love your sister in Christ . Sandra.

“ Thee Apostle I call her I will truly miss my friend a true women of God who you could talk to who would tell you truth. She was my sister in Christ Jesus. The world is going miss a powerful woman of God who didn't play with the word of God who walk it just the way she talk it . Any one who was around her loved her . She was a pray warrior when you ask her to pray she go in for you because that what she loved to do. She never changed on you from time I met her in EastFall. Rest on my sister. Love Sister Janet and family ❤️
