“ Today has been one of the hardest days of my life. A part of my heart has been broken 😞 I know you're in a better place and I know you will definitely be our guardian angel. 51 years of having you in my life to protect me, guide me, encourage me, and most of all love me unconditionally through the good and the bad, rights and wrongs, and happy and sad times. I have ALWAYS been able to count on you 100% in anything from coming to my swimming shows, softball games, dance recitals, school functions, graduations, or just being there when I didn't need you just as much as when I needed you. The tears will never stop, the hurt and pain will never cease, the memories will never leave, you have definitely left your footprints on my heart. It eases the pain a little knowing that these aren't just words posted but, words you heard while you were here and often. Rest on my beloved, one who gave often but asked for little. ❤️😞😞

“ It's sad to see you go but your story has been told. You were a loving and faithful husband, father, brother and uncle. You set the bar for all to look at the legacy of a great man. My condolences to you Gail, his sleep won't be long. Until then hold on to those memories he left with all of us.

“ I will miss Uncle Isaac very much. He and Aunt Ernestine set a good example for married people. He was loving, kind sensitive to women and children. He gave me my first "black girl"doll. I will miss our calls, video chats and visits. Gail thank you for taking good care of him and spoling him. You enriched his life.

Gail,

Please accept our sincerest condolences from my family to yours. It saddened me to hear of Mr Issac's passing. Mr Isaac was always an inspiration to me that helped mold me to become the Soldier that I was and the man that I am today. I will always remember and cherish the long talks and advise from Mr Isaac. May God comfort and bless you all.

Thank you Samuel, yes he loved talking with you all and I know you've heard the wild military stories that we heard growing up. He has love for the whole King Parks crew.
