“ My condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Burgess. Keep in mind that God made a provision to restore life to ones who fall asleep in death... "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). God is Almighty and he always keeps his promises! (Isaiah 55:11).

“ Hello Shirley,

I can't even imagine how you're feeling right now, with Jackie's passing. Jackie was truly a one-of-a-kind brother. I never heard him grumble, never witnessed him being upset or even down in the dumps. He always had that even-tempered mindset whenever I would see him at work, even when I teased him about his Dallas Cowboys! Jackie's presence is truly missed at Children's.

Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To Shirley, Demarkus, Sharon and other family members:
Words cannot express the way we are feeling presently. Jackie was the world's greatest. He was everything to everyone who really knew him. Remember, God gave His only son; so let us not be selfish and peacefully give Jackie back.
Love,

“ My condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. When our loved ones die, the pain of grief may seem unbearable. Our loving God Jehovah is aware of this and comforts us by means of his word the Bible. 1 Peter 5:7 says: While you throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Also Psalm 34:18, Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.
