“ Dear Wright Family,
Please accept my sincere condolences on the passing of Dr. Jacqueline Wright. She was truly an amazing leader whose passion for transforming lives through Christian counseling left a lasting impact on so many.

I was deeply honored to serve under her no-nonsense leadership as a lay Christian counselor. Dr. Wright possessed a remarkable gift of administration and had an exceptional ability to establish sound processes and procedures that strengthened the Counseling Ministry. Her leadership was instrumental in guiding the ministry's transition from Christian Research & Development to the American Association of Christian Counselors model—an approach that has been used for many years to train lay Christian counselors at New Birth.

Dr. Wright later went on to establish her own practice, Wright Counseling, LPC, in Decatur, continuing her calling to serve others with excellence and compassion.

On a more personal note, we once discovered that our grandchildren had competed in the same local elementary school competition—a small but meaningful connection I will always cherish. Our last conversation took place at the Homegoing celebration for Elder Sylvia Waddell, where three former Counseling Ministry Directors were present: Elder Charlotte Canty, Dr. Wright, and Elder Barbara Little. It was a beautiful moment of shared history and mutual respect.

Dr. Wright will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Her legacy of faith, leadership, and service will continue to live on through the many lives she touched.

With sympathy, prayers, and heartfelt gratitude for her life,
Linda Simmons

*My sincere condolences to Kim and family members. Jackie and I shared many fond memories: serving together in ministry, family gatherings and celebrations, one on one conversations about life issues and goals. She was a person with standards (admired and respected), always available to counsel with sage wisdom.

I will cherish the 65 years of friendship and sisterhood I shared with Jackie. The void her transition has left in my life is indescribable. This tiny space will not allow me to express the many memories we shared and how much she personally meant to me. So I will say "See You Later" my beloved friend. You will ever remain in my heart.

Heartfelt Condolences to Kim and the Turman Family
