“ Blessed are those who mourn for they shall be comforted. I was truly heartbroken to hear of Ms. Jackie's passing. We began as co-workers but quickly moved to friends then to great friends. We talked every day. Ms. Jackie will be greatly missed. She had the sweetest spirit. She showered not just me but my entire family with love. I am lifting the family in prayer. May God continue to comfort and strengthen you during this time of bereavement. - Charnet Clark

“ This is definitely a very Sad time in my life. Jackie, Ethel and I have been friends since high school. We shared an inseparable bond for over fifty years. Jackie was a very compassionate and loving friend. She was the friend you could talk to about anything! She shared her love with family and friends. Most importantly the love for her son, Tony. I remember when Tony was born. Jackie was the happiest Mom I ever seen. She showed unconditional love. She told me how God had made her so happy by blessing her with her son. I remember calling her for her birthday and singing the birthday song. She was so Happy and called me saying, "I didn't know you could sing, thank you so much for this very special birthday gift". Now, that was funny because Jackie is the first person who ever said that! Jackie was very funny and would make you laugh so very hard. I thank God for bringing her into my life. She fought the good fight, her battle is over. Rest in Heavenly peace my Dear friend! My heart hurts. I know you are in a better place. ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ My heart sank when I learned of Jackie's passing. Jackie is one of my closest and oldest friends and a distant cousin. Jackie and I formed a bond since we both knew what life is. When we entered high school, Jackie, Gloria, and I were inseparable and the bond we share go way beyond the grave. I have so many memories of us learning life together as adolescents, becoming young women, navigating relationships, adulthood, children, careers, aging,.... She fought a hard fight with grace and courage. Jackie has now gone on to the next step. RIP my friend. Until we meet again. Ethel

“ My prayers are with the entire Hawkins Family. I've known Jackie my entire life - through the lens of watching her incredible friendship since childhood with my sister Gloria and her other bestie Ethel. From tiny Dooly County Ga to wherever life took them, the three of them have an impeccable friendship bond that not even death can demise. I'm praying for the family, and all of the broken hearts that loved and cherished Sweet Jackie. She is truly gone too soon.
