

Jacquelyn Tracey King

September 12, 1971 - December 11, 2023

Jacquelyn Tracy King was born September 12, 1971, in Atlanta, Ga. She was the second-born of three children to John and Joyce King. She grew up in South DeKalb County and she remained in the area for all her adult life where she married and raised a loving family. Throughout her life and career, Tracy made many friends and was well known for her smile and dedication to her family.

Upon graduation from Lakeside High School in DeKalb County, Tracy attended Georgia Southern University in Statesboro, Ga. She started her professional career at SunTrust Bank and after a brief stint at the bank, she left to work at Georgia Pacific where she had a twenty-year career in Human Resources. Upon leaving Georgia Pacific, she started a new career with DeKalb County Schools, working as the Registrar for Laurel Ridge Elementary School. During her time at the school, Tracy enjoyed doting over the students and helping their families.

After a long courtship, Tracy married Mr. Anthony Davis of Augusta, Ga. and they settled and built their lives in Ellenwood, Ga. They welcomed two sons, Jordan and Austin to their family. Tracy truly enjoyed taking care of the men in the house where she was often seen on the sidelines of various sports events and other activities for her sons. She was well-known for advocating for her boys and giving them all she had.

Tracy's spiritual life was formed and nurtured through her baptism and confirmation at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church where she was a member since childhood. She enjoyed attending mass with her family and she enjoyed the warm fellowship from her fellow parishioners. In her spare time, Tracy enjoyed crocheting, baking and she loved the beach.

After a courageous battle with cancer, Tracy transitioned from this earthly realm and into the arms of The Lord on December 11th. She leaves to mourn her passing a devoted husband Mr. Anthony Davis, sons Jordan Davis and Austin Davis; parents John and Joyce King, Mother-in-Law Maozie Davis (Robert), brother Rev. Mr. Tony King (Alanna), sister Tiffany King, Sisters-in-Law Tameka Cook (Lee) and Kenya Reynolds (Maurice), aunt Frances Williams, nephew Gary King, Shantrice Williams, Sanai Williams and a host of loving family and friends.

“ Tracey was a joy to be around. We had a lot of laughs and hugs when we worked together. My prayers are with her family and especially her two beautiful boys who she absolutely adored. May God’s peace and grace be with them, her husband and the rest of her loved ones. She will truly be missed.

“ We got to know Ms. King during the COVID years at our son's school. We would check him out for lunch everyday and often she would open the door for us or go get him from his classroom. During that time we got a front row seat to all that she did for the school and how loved she was by so many students. We also got to know one another and introduce her (and Ms. Bell) to all our favorite lunch places. My partner was receiving treatment for cancer through much of 2020 and 2021 so she became a "cancer buddy" to Ms. King once she was diagnosed. We loved her so much and will miss her terribly. We are sending love to her family and friends. Donna Troka, Jes Hand, and Felix Troka-Hand.

“ Tracey was a sweet soul. She always remembered your birthday; she was always willing to help; and her heart was genuine. She was like sunshine on a cloudy day. Tracey was beautiful on the outside, but equally if not more beautiful on the inside. Anyone who knew her, knew she LOVED, LOVED, LOVED "her boys"; they were her whole world. Working alongside her was joyful. She will be missed.
