“ He was and always will be an awesome and talented basketball player along with be an intelligent young man. It was his greatest love and I remember him in basketball camp every year in Virginia Beach and the coaches would call and ask every year because it was his art and his "God Given Talent." He is my baby and I love you. Love your second mom, Veronica D. Madison

“ Jacquorrius played basketball with my son Joshua. I have fond and fun memories of Jacquorrius . Jacquorrius was very mannerly and respectful around his elders. He always appeared to be even tempered and laid-back. Many times the boys would spend time at my house and I could hear them upstairs joking, talking and laughing. Oh and Jacquorrius had the most beautiful smile. Good times I will never forget!! And I remember Christmas break the boys’ freshman year. I recruited Jacquorrius’s parent to coach the boys over the holidays thru a winter break basketball tournament in Conyers .

Now that was fun!! Jacquorrius was an awesome young man and will be missed immensely.

My Love and compassion goes to the family. Colleen Miller
